David Wolfe has worked for seven years with the Howard Jarvis Taxpayers' Association. In this capacity, he monitors the Legislature closely, writing position letters and testifying on hundreds of bills. Dozens of these would have severely undercut Propositions 13 and 218, the main priorities of the Association. His other responsibilities include putting together an annual Report Card for all 120 legislators and contributing to the HJTA quarterly publication, Taxing Times.

Wolfe has also worked on a variety of initiative campaigns, including ones to defeat taxes and advocate for property rights. Having sat through hundreds of hours of budget hearings, he also can speak broadly on Sacramento's spending habits. Prior to joining HJTA, Wolfe spent a year in the State Capitol, working for then Assemblyman Guy Houston.
