Timothy R. Snowball

"Beating Socialism"

Timothy Snowball is an attorney with Pacific Legal Foundation, the nation's premiere liberty litigation law firm. No other public interest law firm has won as many cases before the US Supreme Court. Pacific Legal Foundation represents a strong offense against the regulatory state in this rising tide of socialism.

America's founding principles, essential to our system of government, are under attack like never before. Socialist policies - which often just take away your freedoms - are again on the rise, and bureaucrats in San Francisco, Sacramento and Washington, DC, are out of control. The rule of "experts" who work in the administrative state at all levels is replacing government by the American people.

Policing what should be "free speech" is one of the latest ploys to control young people's ideas, values and politics. Speech police are working at colleges and universities and schools at all levels. The state of Minnesota tried to ban wearing apparel with political statements at the voting booth until PLF stepped in to represent the victorious plaintiffs. Watch out - the next speech frontier may be your license plate.

Another of government's favorite ways of harassing and nearly bankrupting citizens is through shockingly abusive use of the Endangered Species Act and the Clean Water Act. In this arena, PLF has won substantial and precedent setting Supreme Court cases against the EPA.

What can be done? Join us for the honor of hearing Timothy R. Snowball on where we are headed in the fight for liberty and limited government at the U.S. Supreme Court and beyond.
