BIOGRAPHY

JOHANNA TALCOTT

Johanna Talcott earned a B.A. from the University of Florida, an M.A. from Penn State University, and graduated “cum laude” from Florida International University College of Law. She worked and studied as an archaeologist before discovering that her true passion lay in defending property rights and individual liberty.

During law school, Johanna was Executive Editor of the “FIU Law Review,” President of the Federalist Society, Vice President of the Federal Bar Association, a member of the moot court team, and clerked at the Institute of Justice. She also interned for Judge Adalberto Jordan of the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit and former PLF attorney Judge Frank A. Shepherd of Florida’s Third District Court of Appeal

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

2017 seems to be flying by with "spring already sprung." President Trump has been in office for two months and checking off his campaign promises at top speed in spite of all the opposition, particularly that of the Media.

Please remember to keep our President in your prayers.

PARWF is still looking for people to serve on its Board. The next board meeting will be held on April 4th at 2:00 P.M. at the home of Donna Danna. Any members interested are welcome to attend.

PARWF DUES:

A number of members have still not paid their 2017 dues. Please try to do that as quickly as you can.

We will have a wonderful speaker at our April 24th meeting. We're hoping that all of you will be able to turn out for it. See you there!

Co-Presidents
Jo-Anne Zschokke & Donna Danna

Because our state is so large the CFRW is divided into three sections, the Northern, Central, and Southern Divisions. All are affiliated with the National Federation of Republican Women, the largest all-woman political organization in the world.

We are in the northern division, which covers 37 counties from Monterey to the Oregon border, with 51 clubs and approximately 4,000 members. Our region is San Francisco-Peninsula.

All of the clubs hold monthly meetings with informed and interesting speakers to educate the members on timely topics. Additionally, we hold Northern Division spring and fall conferences and leadership workshops.
