Keynote Speaker: Victor Davis Hanson

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Results and a complete report of our annual scholarship luncheon will be given at our May 7th meeting and I am predicting that it will once again be a success thanks to all of our members participating and with 2nd VP, Jeane Errea-Mills at the helm.

Also, due to the timing of the Scholarship Banquet, Suzanne Krause and Sharlene Hughes will be able to announce the recipients of our 2019 Scholarships at our meeting. Northern Division President Dottie Linden will be speaking and you will be inspired by her enthusiasm and optimism. We will also hear from Kathy Imamura, member of Monterey Peninsula RWF, who will tell us more about Operation Care and Comfort. You may bring your donations of items for the troops to our May and June meetings or drop them off at the Rustler office. A list of desired items is included in this newsletter.

Also included in this newsletter is information about Monterey County Republican Party's Reagan Dinner Gala to be held on May 17th at Embassy Suites in Seaside. The keynote speaker is Victor Davis Hanson, a Senior Fellow at Stanford University's Hoover Institution and often appears on Fox News Channel. I urge you to join me and attend this event to represent South County and our club.

Karen Leonhard, President

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

TJ Plew, CEO of Salinas Valley Fair spoke about the history of the Fair and about the upcoming Fair to be held May 16-19. New member, Rosa Pacheco was presented with a member's folder and GOP pin. Claudia Wollesen, Legislative Chair, spoke about efforts of the Democrats to abolish the Electoral College. Kathy Rice won the opportunity drawing. Don't miss our May 7th meeting when Northern Division President, Dottie Linden will be our guest speaker.

CARING FOR AMERICA

We will be sending items to OCC for the Troops following our June 4th meeting. It is not too early to start getting gifts together and you may bring them to Kathy at the May meeting as well as in June. You may also drop them off at the Rustler office, 522 Broadway, King City. View From The Edge Of The Crowd by Lee Schell

Recent events covered in the so-called Main Stream Media have me just barely controlling my anger. The one that makes my blood boil on a number of levels is the senseless tragedy at the Mall Of America in Minneapolis. A man is frustrated that he can't pick up women at the mall so he looks around for somebody to kill. When I first began trying to get the attention of the opposite sex and was told to "buzz off, creep" I made adjustments to my approach. I didn't look around for somebody to kill.

24-year old Emmanuel Aranda took out his frustration by planning to kill someone and he chose a 5-year old boy to toss off of the third tier balcony in the mall. There are so many questions about this terrible incident that are not getting answered in the press. We know the "alleged" perpetrator is black because his picture was in just about every newspaper and on every television news outlet. What we had to dig to find out was that the victim, Landon Hoffman is a white kid...a five year old who couldn't possibly have had any idea why a big man, just like Landon's dad, would pick him up and throw him 40 feet to the concrete floor when all he was doing was shopping with his mom! That child, should he survive, will be forever changed by that unthinkable, impulsive act of rage and Landon's life is just getting started. Just think of how many hours, days, months, years that this child will have to deal with the horror of that moment.

But, I want to know why the news media in this country aren't reporting that a black man tried, in the worst cowardly way, to murder a white boy? If the circumstances were reversed and a white man picked up a black boy and threw him down three stories, imagine the saturation coverage that incident would have garnered. Jessie Jackson, Al Sharpton, the N-double-A-C-P would be all over CNN, MSNBC and all of the other alphabet networks railing about what a "hate" crime this was and how black lives matter. Is the attempted murder of Landon Hoffman, a little white kid born into a white family and living in a Minneapolis suburb---isn't that a "hate" crime? Can we be so politically forward as to suggest that white lives, especially that of a 5-year old, matter?

I spent a lot of years reporting, researching and writing news stories for radio and television and my rule of thumb was that if race wasn't relative, you needn't mention it. Not only is race relative to this story, it could be the core of the issue. For news outlets to ignore or deliberately leave out the race differential in this incident is deliberate manipulation of the truth. This atrocity in Minneapolis cries out for answers such as: was Landon Hoffman targeted because he was a helpless white boy or just easy prey for a sick mind? Another question I ask myself as a professional news reporter is: was Aranda hitting on women from outside his demographic classification? Was this the source of his anger and was this innocent child targeted because of his race? Will we ever get the answers to these questions? I, for one, am not holding my breath.

A mailing address has been set up for those wishing to send cards to Landon:
Prayers for Landon
PO Box 43516
Brooklyn Park, MN 55443-4200

A "go fund me" page has been made to help Landon's family with medical expenses.

LEGISLATIVE

Leading up to the fall election Governor Newsom publically opposed Prop. 10, the state-wide rent control measure that would have repealed the Costa-Hawkins Rental Housing Act and brought extreme forms of rent control back to CA. Without this Act, investors would abandon housing projects in California making a housing short fall and placing housing out of reach for working families. Prop. 10 failed, keeping the Costa-Hawkins Rental Housing Act intact. The Governor has flip-flopped and now supports removing the Act with AB 1482. Claudia Wollesen, Legislative Chair
