Distinguished Guest Speaker

Dr. Michael Ledeen

Internationally Renowned Scholar on Iran, Iraq,
Terrorism and International Security

Dr. Michael Ledeen is a Freedom Scholar at the Foundation for Defense of Democracies and an internationally renowned expert on Iran, Iraq, terrorism, and international security. He has served as a consultant to the National Security Council, the State Department, the Defense Department, and as a Special Advisor to the Secretary of State.

He is an expert on decades-old corruption and arrogance in the intelligence agencies, especially the CIA, which, long before its undermining a duly elected president today, worked against Israel and played down the Russian threat, among other deceptions.

Dr. Ledeen regularly appears on cable news and talk radio programs; blogs at Forbes, The Hill, and PJ Media, and contributes to The Wall Street Journal.

He holds a PhD in modern European history and philosophy from the University of Wisconsin and has taught at Washington University in St. Louis and the University of Rome.

He is the author of more than 35 books including Field of Fight: How to Win the War Against Radical Islam and Its Allies, co-authored with General Michael T. Flynn. His previous books include Accomplice to Evil: Iran and the War Against the West; The War Against the Terror Masters; The Iranian Time Bomb; Tocqueville on American Character; and Freedom Betrayed: How America Led a Global Democratic Revolution, Won the Cold War, and Walked Away.

At the conclusion of his talk, Dr. Ledeen welcomes a question and answer period.
