For immediate release

Valerie Jo Remley
BRW Publicity
925-820-7313

BLACKHAWK REPUBLICAN WOMEN

Invite you to an evening with

Commander John "J.R." Hatten, U.S. Navy, ret.

speaking on

Homeland Security - What is our country doing to protect the U.S. from terrorist threats?

When: Thursday, February 9, 2017

Place: Blackhawk Country Club, Grille Room (all welcome, no denim, please, per Club policy)

Time: 5:30 check-in and social with hors d'oeuvres and no-host bar; 6:00 speaker

Cost: Twenty-five dollars

Commander Hatten retired from the U.S. Navy in 2002 as a combat-experienced naval aviator with over 3,000 hours of flight time and is a graduate of the U.S. Navy Fighter Weapon School (TOPGUN). As founder and President of Tamarack Technologies, a defense contracting organization, he serves as a consultant to the U.S. Navy as the Physical Security and Access Control Technology Insertion Team lead for the Commander, United States Navy Installations Command. In this position, he is directly responsible for identification and recommended procurement of new and innovative technologies which will provide maximum security protection to U.S. Navy installations and personnel around the world.

Commander Hatten is a graduate of the following:
U.S. Naval Academy, B. S. in Systems Engineering
U.S. Navy Fighter Weapons School (TOPGUN)
Jack Welch Institute, M.B.A.

Come hear an insider's view on the defense industry and what our government is doing overseas to protect our country from terrorist threats!

Please make your reservations by e-mailing or calling Jane Parish at janeparish@sbcglobal.net or 925-216-6663, then mailing a check made payable to "Blackhawk Republican Women" to her at 366 Jacaranda Drive, Danville 94506-2125, to arrive by Tuesday, February 7th.

"A reservation made is a reservation paid!"