

Short BIO Malcolm McGough

Malcolm is an Australian citizen and permanent resident of the US who came to America 10 years ago after being recruited by the Yankee Institute for Public Policy out of Trinity College CT, as a Senior Analyst. He has been heavily involved in Politics since arriving, having been the campaign manager for the CT Attorney Generals race, CT Governor's race and US Senate Exploratory Committee, and as the California Political and Field Operations Director for the Trump/Pence Presidential Campaign. More recently he was the Campaign Manager CA 39th Congressional District. He is the former CEO and Executive board member of Election Integrity Project CA.

Malcolm is a 25-year veteran and retired Lieutenant Colonel, from the Australia Army. After retirement he ran his own consulting firm before being recruited as an executive with the Australian DOD. He has a Masters of Administration majoring in International Strategic Studies and Government Policy, a Bachelor of Science majoring in Applied Technology, and a Graduate Diploma in Logistics. As a senior military officer, he was selected to, and is a Graduate of, the Australian Army Command and Staff College in 1995.

Malcolm has a passion for his adopted country and speaks at groups and organizations across California on a range of subjects. They include, 'America's Godly Heritage', and the 'Truth of America's Role as a Beacon of Hope and Light for the World to follow'. As former Chief Executive Officer of EIPCa he incorporates the importance of cleaning up election fraud in CA as a fundamental requirement for America to fulfil her God given leadership role in the world.

He has two grown daughters and three granddaughters. Ashlee, aged 15 months, went to the Lord on May 23, 2013.
