* PRESENTS ****

Lance Izumi
“The Great Parent Revolt”

Lance Izumi is Senior Director of the Center for Education at the Pacific Research Institute. He has written and produced books, studies, and films on a wide variety of education topics. Most recently, he is the author of the 2023 book The Great Parent Revolt: How Parents and Grassroots Leaders Are Fighting Critical Race Theory in America’s Schools and the 2022 book The Homeschool Boom: Pandemic, Policies, and Possibilities.

He is a former two-term president of the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, the largest system of higher education in the nation, and served as a member of the Board from 2004 to 2015. From 2016 to 2017, he served as a member of President Donald Trump’s Agency Action Team for education policy, where he authored recommendations for the incoming Trump administration.

Lance received his Juris Doctorate from the University of Southern California School of Law, his Master of Arts in political science from the University of California at Davis, and his Bachelor of Arts in economics and history from the University of California at Los Angeles.

Lance speaks plainly and with sincerity about standing against the sweeping forces of thought conformity and political indoctrination in the classroom. Please join us to hear how we can all affect the local educational bureaucracy and gain the tools to stop classroom indoctrination!

Lance will provide his book “The Great Parent Revolt” for sale at the meeting.
