Distinguished Guest Speaker

Tom Fitton

President – Judicial Watch

Founded in 1994, Judicial Watch is a public interest group that investigates and prosecutes government corruption and seeks to ensure that government and judicial officials act ethically and do not abuse the powers entrusted to them. With 20 years of experience in conservative public policy, Tom Fitton has helped lead Judicial Watch since 1998 and overseen its tremendous growth and success. Under Fitton's leadership, Judicial Watch was named one of Washington's top ten most effective government watchdog organizations by The Hill newspaper. Mr. Fitton is a nationally recognized expert on government corruption, immigration enforcement, congressional and judicial ethics, and open government.

Judicial Watch blew the lid off of the Benghazi and IRS scandals – uncovering documents that even Congress couldn't get as they battle the Obama lawlessness in Washington. In addition, Judicial Watch is getting to the bottom of the Hillary Clinton Email Scandal, through its investigation and lawsuits.

From holding corrupt politicians accountable to the American people, to challenging Obama's executive actions that violate our laws against illegal immigration, Judicial Watch is the leading non-profit watchdog organization fighting government corruption.
