Our President has personal matters she is attending to that have kept her quite busy and she has asked me to find some appropriate material to enter on her behalf. It will not be up to her usual quality but I will do my best. She has included her longstanding appeal: Please consider helping with Membership. Carla Evans

3 Purple Heart Veterans were sworn into Congress this year with significantly less publicity than the new "breed of women politicians" and extensive coverage over who wore what. As a fellow Representative said: "5 eyes, 5 arms, 4 legs..... All American!!!"

As the new 2nd VP I am charged with arranging our "Speaker Program" and I rely heavily on the success of former speakers. I've started our programs with Jon Coupal from Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Assoc. but branched out and tried some new and exciting things. For example, I sent a letter to Dr. Condoleezza Rice asking her to speak to our club but she is unable to accommodate our request at this time due to teaching commitments. Since Dr. Rice is a professor at Stanford University I got to thinking about some of her students, and how tough it must be to be a young conservative in academia. That's what motivated me to contact Griffin Bovee, the President of Stanford Hoover Society (SHS) to invite him to speak and he accepted and will be our speaker at the February dinner. I think it's important for us retirees at The Villages to understand young Republicans, because this could be the avenue we need to drive to re-energize the GOP in California. I've been told that SHS works to provide Stanford students the chance to deepen their education by engaging with researchers and policymakers they might not otherwise hear from in classroom settings. Obviously, there is deep polarization between Democrats and Republicans, so work needs to be done to improve communication between liberals and conservatives to lessen that gap. Two different ideologies about government should not alienate one group over another. I'm excited to hear Mr. Bovee's message about ways to foster interdisciplinary and bipartisan discussions by our youth, and ways to re-brand the California GOP. In the future we will also be hearing from the UC Berkeley Republicans.

Please note that we pay a fee to CCR to be members and they publish a newsletter- Grassroots - that is available to us at no cost. Simply send your e-mail address to Pam Carradi, Secretary of CCR, at pamcarradi@gmail.com requesting to be put on the mailing list. We chose to make this an individual decision by our membership to protect our mailing list and comply with certain regulations. As a "statewide publication I think you will find it a welcome addition to your inbox.

Democrats argue that "Dreamers" coming here is an Act of Love, a tribute to America. That's like telling a store owner to take it as a complement that Shoplifters chose his store!

Griffin Bovee

The Republican Club at the Villages has a special guest speaker, Mr. Griffin Bovee, current President of the Stanford Hoover Society (SHS) for its February 28th evening dinner meeting. We will hear about “Staying Ahead of the Curve”. The evening starts with the Social Hour at 5:30, a brief business meeting, dinner at 6:15 and then Mr. Bovee.

The Stanford Hoover Society is Stanford’s most prominent student organization for disseminating ideas that promote economic opportunity, personal freedom, and international security and peace. As President of SHS, Griffin works to provide Stanford students the chance to deepen their education by engaging with researchers and policymakers they might not otherwise hear from in classroom settings. For the past four years, Griffin has worked to improve communication between campus liberals and conservatives and has regularly participated in conferences on effective political branding. Griffin is a senior studying political science and history.

(I hope none of you will hold his youth and good looks against him - some people under the age of thirty actually have something to say worth hearing )

To Kill an American

You probably missed this in the rush of news, but there was actually a report that someone in Pakistan had published in a newspaper, an offer of a reward to anyone who killed an American, any American.

So an Australian dentist wrote an editorial the following day to let everyone know what an American is. So they would know when they found one. (Good one, mate!!!!)

'An American is English, or French, or Italian, Irish, German, Spanish, Polish, Russian or Greek. An American may also be Canadian, Mexican, African, Indian, Chinese, Japanese, Korean, Australian, Iranian, Asian, Arab, Pakistani or Afghan.

An American may also be a Comanche, Cherokee, Osage, Blackfoot, Navaho, Apache, Seminole or one of the many other tribes known as native Americans..

An American is Christian, or he could be Jewish, or Buddhist, or Muslim. In fact, there are more Muslims in America than in Afghanistan .. The only difference is that in America they are free to worship as each of them chooses.

An American is also free to believe in no religion.. For that he will answer only to God, not to the government, or to armed thugs claiming to speak for the government and for God.

An American lives in the most prosperous land in the history of the world..

The root of that prosperity can be found in the Declaration of Independence , which recognizes the God given right of each person to the pursuit of happiness.

An American is generous.. Americans have helped out just about every other nation in the world in their time of need, never asking a thing in return.

When Afghanistan was over-run by the Soviet army 20 years ago, Americans came with arms and supplies to enable the people to win back their country!

As of the morning of Sept. 11, Americans had given more than any other nation to the poor in Afghanistan ..

The national symbol of America , The Statue of Liberty , welcomes your tired and your poor, the wretched refuse of your teeming shores, the homeless, tempest tossed. These in fact are the people who built America

Some of them were working in the Twin Towers the morning of September 11, 2001, earning a better life for their families. It's been told that the World Trade Center victims were from at least 30 different countries, cultures, and first languages, including those that aided and abetted the terrorists.

So you can try to kill an American if you must. Hitler did. So did General Tojo, and Stalin, and Mao Tse-Tung, and other blood-thirsty tyrants in the world.. But, in doing so, you would just be killing yourself. Because Americans are not a particular people from a particular place. They are the embodiment of the human spirit of freedom. Everyone who holds to that spirit, everywhere, is an American.

Our President - The Business Man

The Trump administration released their annual report to Congress on White House Office Personnel. It includes the name, status, salaries, and position titles of all 377 White House employees. The report also said that Trump decided not to take a dime of his salary; instead he donated it to an amazing cause – he donated all $400,000 to the Dept of the Interior where it will be used for construction and repair needs at military cemeteries! It's so great to have a President who loves our brave military men and women.

The report also showed that President Trump is far better at saving money. The total White House salaries under Trump are $35.8 million vs. $60.9 million under Obama, a savings of $25.1 million. There are 140 fewer employees on White House staff under Trump than under Obama at this point in their respective presidencies. 39 fewer staffers are dedicated to The First Lady of the United States (FLOTUS). Currently, there are only 5 staffers dedicated to Melania Trump vs. 44 staffers who served Michelle Obama (FY2009). Where's the media coverage of this?

Democrats & Open Borders

The truth: Why our country will operate like California, Illinois, and New York - The MAJORITY of Americans don't realize just how much power and money the Democrats make off Illegal Aliens being in our country even without voter fraud. This is why they created 'Sanctuary' cities and states. Simply by including their numbers as part of the population in the US Census (they went to court to prevent the question on immigration status from appearing on the Census questionnaire), they get mountains of money from the federal government. For every 770,000 illegal aliens in their Democrat-controlled area, they get a seat in the US House of Representatives apportioned to their area following the census.

YES! READ IT AGAIN!

After the US Census (performed once every 10 years), the 435 seats in the US House of Representatives are divided up by state populations and the last one resulted in one seat for roughly every 770,000 people.

So, let's say California has about 4 MILLION non-citizens living there right now. That means that FIVE of their seats in the US Congress are due to people who are not Americans being counted in the Census! Now imagine if by 2020, when they do the next census, they had 10 MILLION non-citizens living in California. That would mean California would get an additional 10 SEATS in the US HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES due to non-citizen. NOW, do you see why Democrats want Open Borders?

Next time you hear the bleeding-heart liberals and Democratic Party Leadership claiming how they 'care' about these poor illegal aliens here, call it B__I $__t! The Democrats found a way to get money and seats in Congress without even having to resort to their normal rigged elections!

Back in Dec I Saw An Amazing Football Game

- 1) The players' hair fit under their helmets.
  - 2) Very few tattoos could be seen.
  - 3) There were no outlandish end zone celebrations.
  - 4) There was no taunting.
  - 5) Opposition players helped each other up after a play.
  - 6) Footballs were not spiked or left for the referee to retrieve; they were handed to the referee.
  - 7) No one took a knee on the sidelines.
  - 8) Players stood at attention during the playing of the national anthem.
  - 9) They went to each others fans to sing their song.
- It's great to watch an Army-Navy game!

Dick Lamm, Governor of Colorado: His particularly poignant thoughts on Immigration.

Recently there was an immigration overpopulation conference in Washington D.C., filled to capacity by many of America's finest minds and leaders. A brilliant college professor [and farmer] by the name of Victor Davis Hanson talked about his latest book, Mexifornia, explaining how immigration - both legal and illegal - was destroying the entire state of California. He said it would march across the country until it destroyed all vestiges of The American Dream. Moments later, former Colorado Governor Richard D. Lamm stood up and gave a stunning speech on how to destroy America.

The audience sat spellbound as he described eight methods for the destruction of the United States. He said, "If you believe that America is too smug, too self-satisfied, too rich, then let's destroy America. It is not that hard to do. No nation in history has survived the ravages of time Arnold Toynbee observed that all great civilizations rise and fall and that 'An autopsy of history would show that all great nations commit suicide.'

"Here is how they do it," Lamm said:

"First, to destroy America, turn America into a bilingual or multi-lingual and bi-cultural country. History shows that no nation can survive the tension, conflict, and antagonism of two or more competing languages and cultures. It is a blessing for an individual to be bilingual; however, it is a curse for a society to be bilingual. The historical scholar, Seymour Lipset, put it this way: 'The histories of bilingual and bi-cultural societies that do not assimilate are histories of turmoil, tension, and tragedy.' Canada, Belgium, Malaysia, and Lebanon all face crises of national existence in which minorities press for autonomy, if not independence. Pakistan and Cyprus have divided. Nigeria suppressed an ethnic rebellion. France faces difficulties with Basques, Bretons, Corsicans and Muslims.'

Lamm went on:

"Second, to destroy America, invent 'multiculturalism' and encourage immigrants to maintain their culture. Make it an article of belief that all cultures are equal; that there are no cultural differences. Make it an article of faith that the Black and Hispanic dropout rates are due solely to prejudice and discrimination by the majority. Every other explanation is out of bounds.

"Third, we could make the United States an 'Hispanic Quebec' without much effort. The key is to celebrate diversity rather than unity. As Benjamin Schwarz said in the Atlantic Monthly recently: 'The apparent success of our own multi-ethnic and multicultural experiment might have been achieved not by tolerance but by hegemony. Without the dominance that once dictated ethnocentricity and what it meant to be an American, we are left with only tolerance and pluralism to hold us together.' Lamm said, "I would encourage all immigrants to keep their own language and culture. I would replace the melting pot metaphor with the salad bowl metaphor. It is important to ensure that we have various cultural subgroups living in America enforcing their differences rather than as Americans, emphasizing similarities.

"Fourth, I would make our fastest growing demographic group the least educated. I would add a second underclass, un-assimilated, under-educated, and antagonistic to our population. I would have this second underclass have a 50% dropout rate from high school.

"My fifth point for destroying America would be to get big foundations and business to give these efforts lots of money. I would invest in ethnic identity, and I would establish the cult of 'Victimology.' I would get all minorities to think that their lack of success was the fault of the majority. I would start a grievance industry blaming all minority failure on the majority.

"My sixth plan for America's downfall would include dual citizenship, and promote divided loyalties. I would celebrate diversity over unity. I would stress differences rather than similarities. Diverse people worldwide are mostly engaged in hating each other - that is, when they are not killing each other. A diverse, peaceful, or stable society is against most historical precept. People undervalue the unity it takes to keep a nation together. Look at the ancient Greeks. The Greeks believed that they belonged to the same race; they possessed a common language and literature; and they worshipped the same gods. All Greece took part in the Olympic games. A common enemy, Persia, threatened their liberty. Yet all these bonds were not strong enough to overcome two factors: local patriotism and geographical conditions that nurtured political divisions. Greece fell. 'E. Pluribus Unum' -- From many, one. In that historical reality, if we put the emphasis on the 'pluribus' instead of the 'Unum,' we will 'Balkanize' America as surely as Kosovo.

"Next to last, I would place all subjects off limits. Make it taboo to talk about anything against the cult of 'diversity.' I would find a word similar to 'heretic' in the 16th century - that stopped discussion and paralyzed thinking. Words like 'racist' or 'xenophobe' halt discussion and debate. Having made America a bilingual/bi-cultural country, having established multi-culturalism, having the large foundations fund the doctrine of 'Victimology,' I would next make it impossible to enforce our immigration laws. I would develop a mantra: That because immigration has been good for America, it must always be good. I would make every individual immigrant symmetric and ignore the cumulative impact of millions of them."

In the last minute of his speech, Governor Lamm wiped his brow. Profound silence followed. Finally he said, "Last, I would censor Victor Davis Hanson's book Mexifornia. His book is dangerous. It exposes the plan to destroy America. Unless you feel America deserves to be destroyed, don't read that book."

There was no applause. A chilling fear quietly rose like an ominous cloud above every attendee at the conference. Every American in that room knew that everything Lamm enumerated was proceeding methodically, quietly, darkly, yet pervasively across the United States today. Discussion is being suppressed. Over 100 languages are ripping the foundation of our educational system and national cohesiveness. Even barbaric cultures that practice female genital mutilation are growing as we celebrate "diversity." American jobs are vanishing into the Third World as corporations create a Third World in America - take note of California and other states. To date, ten million illegal aliens are growing fast. It is reminiscent of George Orwell's book, 1984. In that story, three slogans are engraved in the Ministry of Truth building: "War is peace," "Freedom is slavery," and "Ignorance is strength."

Governor Lamm walked back to his seat. It dawned on everyone at the conference that our nation and the future of this great democracy is deeply in trouble and worsening fast. If we don't get this immigration monster stopped within three years, it will rage like a California wildfire and destroy everything in its path, especially The American Dream.

DEMOCRATS ARE A SORRY LOT

2019 Burt Prelutsky

In the past, the Democrats used to promote the middleclass. The farmer, the mechanic, the guy on the assembly line, the small business owner who aspired to become a big business owner, were the backbone of the party.

But it is no longer your grandfather's party or even your father's. Along the way, they realized that the most important part of their constituency consisted of black voters, who could always be counted on to deliver 95% of their votes and to provide the House with a solid black base, today numbering 54 members of the Congressional Black Caucus.

The fact is, the last Democratic presidential candidate to win a majority of white votes was Lyndon Johnson in 1964.

But as the Democrats saw their House lead fritter away during Obama's last six years, they realized they were riding the wrong horse and decided to put all their chips on the much larger Latino community. That is why they are so opposed to Trump's wall and why they devote so much energy to opposing an end to chain migration and the immigration lottery.

Even though there are reports that Hispanic citizens aren't all that enthusiastic about having the country flooded with their illiterate, welfare-collecting, second cousins, the Democrats will ride this brown horse until it drops. There simply aren't enough Jews, Muslims, college students, homosexuals, transgenders, Silicon Valley billionaires and suburban women, voting to provide them with the necessary votes in presidential elections.

It's possible that Trump's victory was a one-off, and that in 2020, one of the three dozen announced Democrats will carry the day.

If so, I don't see much of a future for the nation or the Republican Party. It was one thing for Barack Obama to win in 2008 by playing to white guilt, and especially following George W. Bush's dismal eight years. I personally didn't know any Republican who was very excited by John McCain or Mitt Romney. Most of us voted against Obama, not for his opponents.

But, even with a recalcitrant Congress and senators like Bob Corker, Jeff Flake and Lisa Murkowski, Trump has managed to work a few miracles. So if Trump is unable to defeat someone like Cory Booker, Kamala Harris, Tom Steyer, Kirsten Gillibrand, Bernie Sanders, Joe Biden or Gavin Newsom, in two years, even Pollyanna wouldn't be able to spot a silver lining in America's future.

If you think I'm being overly negative, you tell me how electing a president who believes in an agenda that includes open borders; abortions on demand; globalism; sexual identity being a matter of opinion rather than biology; reducing crime stats by simply eliminating certain crimes from the book; a media that attempts to pass off Socialist propaganda as news; and schools dedicated to churning out ignorant students, who not only don't possess language or math skills, but can't even write their own names because cursive writing is considered elitist, is a good thing.

This is the catechism of the Communist-Socialist-Progressive-Liberal-Fascist Cult, formerly known as the Democratic Party.

☉ Remember how Rep. Joe Wilson was chastised for shouting out "You lie!" after Barack Obama said illegal aliens would never get free health care? A lot of people still owe Mr. Wilson an apology, but that's nothing compared to the apology that Obama owes the rest of us for telling that particular lie, along with the other whoppers about our being allowed to keep our doctors and our health insurance if we were happy with them.

☉ The laughs these days, as you have probably noticed, are in very short supply. Even the late night talk show hosts, who, in the days of Jay Leno and Conan O'Brien, could be counted on to provide a few chuckles about the day's news, have given way to the likes of Stephen Colbert and Jimmy Kimmel, a pair of public scolds who devote all their time to insulting President Trump and those of us who support his America First agenda.

But, fortunately, a few of the Leftist politicians and pundits have managed to pick up the slack. We had Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez, who shows off more teeth every time she talks than Bert Parks and Burt Lancaster put together, announcing on "60 Minutes" that nobody should pay attention to her factual mistakes because what matters is that she is a good person and her heart is in the right place. If only I'd thought to point out that very thing to Mrs. Grant, my 10th grade Algebra teacher.

Then we have Ms. Laugh-a-Minute herself, Nancy Pelosi, telling us that walls are immoral, momentarily forgetting about the one surrounding her San Francisco estate. Lest we didn't get the joke, her lap dogs in the media were quick to point out that she wasn't using "immoral" in the religious sense, God forbid.

If these geniuses ever stopped bashing President Trump long enough to answer a few questions, I would ask them where they thought our sense of morality stems from, if not from the Old and New Testaments?

I suppose if the Leftists were to answer that question honestly, they'd say they derived their sense of morality from the Democratic 2016 convention platform.

Some of the Democrats have to rely on speech in order to amuse us, but not the Democrats' Great White Hope known as Robert Francis "Beto" O'Rourke. He had us rolling in the aisle recently when he decided to post a video of himself having his teeth cleaned.

I'm only guessing, but I'm assuming it is merely the first in a series of videos that will allow us to share all the precious moments of his life, including his having breakfast, his getting dressed, combing his hair and, perhaps, if we're really lucky and say, "pretty please," he will film himself on the potty and making whoopee with Mrs. "Beto."

I, for one, hope that President Trump hangs tough and doesn't let Schumer and Pelosi and their trained monkeys in Congress bluff him out of his wall.

I still recall his arrogant and narcissistic predecessor, Barack Obama, in 2009, telling the congressional Republicans to sit down, shut up and get out of his way. And that, my friends, is the Left's idea of civility and the ideal when it comes to presidential deportment.

Editorial: In my continuing abuse of what I view as timely, significant, and worthwhile when putting together this newsletter I will offer some observations and thoughts that are not simply copies of "stuff" sent to me by the USPS or E-Mail that I deem "good reading material" or pointed humor, but are mine alone. As I watched the President's State of The Union address, which had as its standard backdrop the Vice-President Mike Pence and The Speaker of The House Nancy Pelosi, I could not fail to observe the absolutely disgraceful and grossly disrespectful way in which this paragon of stupidity and ignorance conducted herself. She was either fumbling with sheets of what appeared to be "large blank pages" of note paper or she was still standing while the President was continuing his address. Her blatant and purposeful attempt to display her contempt for the President completely ignored her responsibility to display her respect for the Office of President established by hundreds of prior such speeches. I reflected back to a State of The Union address by Republican Ronald Reagan when The Speaker was Democrat Tip O'Neil. The Speaker's political philosophy was diametrically opposed to the President's but out of respect for the Office Tip would never dream to display such conduct as that displayed by Nancy (we have to pass this bill so we can find out what's in it) Pelosi. How a Democrat could watch such a display and not be embarrassed is beyond my imagination. To go along with the Pelosi act we were forced to watch the "White Dress Clown Act" by the newly elected Ladies(?) of the Democratic Party. All they were missing was large red noses and overly lengthy and wide bright red shoes to complete their stellar performance. Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez was their star - UGH. Lastly, you might come to the conclusion this Newsletter is overly concerned with "Immigration" and the associated "Wall" issue. In that regard I would point out that a supposed "non-partisan" poll of expected 2020 voters identified as their #1 concern the issue of "Illegal Immigration", and that result was reflected in every state in the country, including California, New York, and Florida thus proving that not everyone lives in Los Angeles, San Francisco, New York City, Chicago, or Miami, which are the centers of the "Get Rid Of The Electoral College".

P.S. Recent Release: POTUS sent out a prior copy of his SOTU speech to the Democratic leadership(?), who immediately wrote scripts to trash his speech in their rebuttals and post speech commentary based on "The Copy" sent them. Their plan also called for "NO STANDING" by Dems. The President then gave a different speech. That's why Pelosi was scrambling through her papers and realized she had been sandbagged. Additionally his prelim made no mention of his intro of the Cancer Girl, the ICE Agent, and the numerous Military Honorees which forced the standing. Then he pointed to the "White Dress Clowns" and commented "hey, you're not supposed to stand, remember the plan?" ...Well played Mr. President, those who appreciate all you are accomplishing salute you. IN REALITY
THEY'RE NOT AFTER ME
THEY'RE AFTER YOU

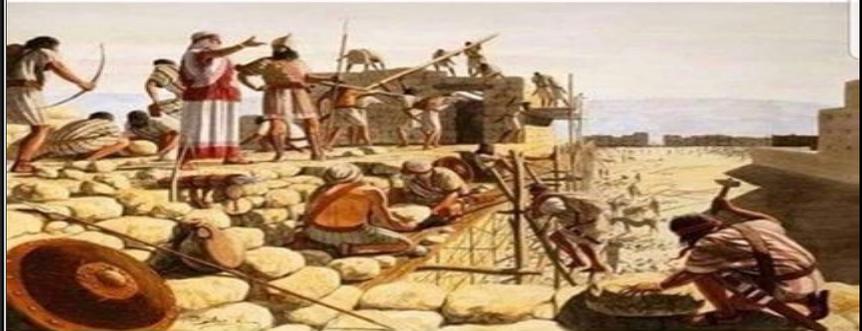

I'M JUST IN THE WAY

BAIL'EM OUT!!! ??? Hell, back in 1990, the Government seized the Mustang Ranch brothel in Nevada for tax evasion and, as required by law, tried to run it. They failed and it closed. Now, we are trusting the economy of our country, our banking system, our auto industry and possibly our health plans to the same nit-wits who couldn't make money running a whore house and selling whiskey? What the Hell are we thinking?

DID YOU EVER WONDER IF TRUMP WAS THE RIGHT CHOICE WELL WONDER NO MORE HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF

And the man God chose was neither a politician nor a priest. Instead, God chose a builder whose name was Nehemiah. And the first step of rebuilding the nation was the building of a great wall. God instructed Nehemiah to build a wall around Jerusalem to protect its citizens from enemy attack.

Amazing stats: An eye opener!

1. These 10 States now have more people on welfare than they do employed!

California	New Mexico	Mississippi	Alabama	Illinois
Kentucky	Ohio	New York	Maine	South Carolina

2. The Senate Budget Committee reports that in fiscal year 2012, between food stamps, housing support, child care, Medicaid and other benefits, the average U.S. Household below the poverty line received $168.00 a day in government support. What's the problem with that much support? Well the average household income in America is just over $50,000, which averages out to $137.13 a day.

To put it another way, being on welfare now pays the equivalent of $30.00 an hour for 40 hour week, while the average job pays $24.00 an hour. (And guess who is getting most of those benefits?)
