Distinguished Guest Speaker

STEVE HILTON

Steve is a former senior adviser to UK Prime Minister David Cameron, a champion of “positive populism” and a trusted voice on FOX News.

STEVE WILL MAKE A MAJOR ANNOUNCEMENT TOMORROW, TUESDAY, APRIL 22, THAT WILL MAKE WAVES IN THE POLITICAL LANDSCAPE.

At our dinner, Steve will tackle the “literally” burning question: What will it take to save California?

He spent a year as a visiting fellow at Stanford University's Hoover Institution, has been a scholar at Stanford's Freeman Spogli Institute for International Studies, and has taught at Stanford's Hasso Plattner Institute of Design.

In 2023, Hilton initiated Golden Together, a bipartisan research institute, with Lanhee Chen and Gloria Romero. The same year, he proposed a ballot initiative designed to reduce the housing shortage in California. The measure would prohibit private lawsuits related to the California Environmental Quality Act and cap impact fees paid by homebuilders and developers

Steve will personally sign his latest book “Califailure”. In “Califailure”, Hilton compellingly captures exactly where Newsom's far-left experiment has gone fundamentally – catastrophically – wrong.

How did his happen, and what is needed to turn things around? Hilton will identify the nine key “pathologies” – from Elitism to Cronyism to Narcissism – that define the ideology at the heart of California's decline. He will lay out a comprehensive program of policy reform that will restore the Golden State to its rightful place as the very best of America.

Californians are starting to wake up from the long and fitful nightmare. In 2024 far-left politicians were removed from leadership positions in San Francisco and Los Angeles. Proposition 36, which in the words of its proponents “makes crime illegal again,” passed overwhelming with majorities in every county.

Steve looks forward to answering your questions at the conclusion of his talk.
