GENERAL MEMBERSHIP

The guest speakers for the January 2nd General Membership Meeting will be Mayor of King City, Mike LeBarre and King City Councilwoman, Darlene Acosta. They will be presenting the "State of the City", a recap of events and accomplishments in 2017 and a look ahead for King City in 2018. Both Mayor LeBarre and Councilwoman Acosta will be running for re-election to the City Council in 2018. Everyone is welcome for lunch or to stop by to hear the speakers.

Mayor LeBarre is a native Californian and serves as Mayor of King City, first elected to the city council in 2014. He is Chair of Monterey-Salinas Transit, Director for Transportation Agency of Monterey County and Water Resource Agency. He is a Chair of Monterey County Mayors Association and a member of numerous committees in the county.

Councilwoman Acosta is a lifelong resident of South County and holds a BA from San Jose State University in Social Work. She is a volunteer with the King City Police Department as a domestic violence advocate and is South County Prevention Coordinator for Sun Street Centers. She was elected twice to Greenfield City Council and served as Mayor Pro-Tem and currently is city councilwoman in King City.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

New year, new challenges in 2018 for our Republican candidates running for office. 1st VP, Sue Kleber has lined up speakers in March, April and May who are running for State offices and on January 2, our own, Member Darlene Acosta and Associate Member Mike LeBarre will be here to give us the "State of the City" and tell us about their plans to run for reelection to King City Council. This will be a good meeting to bring your friends who may want to join our club and learn about our city's accomplishments in 2017 and goals for next year. We have a great start with 3 new members that Membership Chair, Dorothy Errea will introduce to us in this newsletter and at our next meeting. Congratulations to Paulette Bumbalough and Ricky Humphreys for being selected as Citizen of the Year and Friend of the Community for 2017. What an honor for both and for our club to have them as members. I look forward to a new term as President of SMCRWF and I am so pleased that our team from last term is staying on with the addition of Jeane Errea-Mills taking on the fundraising events for our club. It was encouraging to speak to many of our standing committee members who are also staying on and to add some new names to our roster taking over some of the vacant slots. The CFRW Northern Division Leadership Forum is scheduled for January 27th in Rancho Cordova and I encourage any of our members who would like to become more educated and confident about the responsibilities and tasks associated with being an officer or chairman to attend. Please let me know if you would like to join me there.

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Our Christmas party was a relaxing and fun filled time with Christmas music provided by Celestina Ripley while we enjoyed a delicious prime rib luncheon. The room was beautifully transformed with poinsettias and Christmas decorations by Cindy Wagner and Kathy Forgnone. Our Regional Director, Bunny Hacker, installed the 2018-19 officers and our club was awarded a certificate of accomplishment from CFRW for impact and community engagement in our Military, Veterans and Armed Services. Arlene Azcona was the winner of the Volunteer Service Award basket and Ricky Humphreys was chosen as the Associate Member of the Year.

SUNSHINE

Barbara Wellong is recovering at home from surgery and enjoyed receiving the card we all signed for her at the Christmas party. We have a new Sunshine chairman. Cheryl Harrison will be sending cards to our members who need a bit of cheer or get well wishes. Many thanks to Roz Arness for her many years at this post. Give Cheryl a call if you hear of anyone being under the weather and she will send a card. (831) 385-5977

View From The Edge Of The Crowd by Lee Schell

It's a good thing that I am retired and not running for political office because in this current climate of what I am calling situational ethics I would be getting kicked off the air like Charlie Rose or having to either resign, like Al Franken drop out of a political race like Andrea Ramsey of Kansas.

"What's all this 'naughty or nice' jazz? — Haven't you ever heard of situational ethics?"

This was all pointed out to me by the current president of the South Monterey County Republican Women [Federated] who also has been my "roommate" for the past 50.5 years. Let me add a little background here, as we used to say in the news business. That was back in the day when most reporters could keep their mouths shut when given background information on a story while it was developing. Now days, an off-the-record briefing is just another broken promise when getting a "scoop" is the priority.

I started out my career in broadcasting as a Disk Jockey playing jazz and sometimes rock-n-roll on the radio. Back then it was thought to be cute or "hip" when introducing or coming out of a record to make some kind of smart ass comment. I got pretty good at "smart ass" and all that has stuck with me, over the years. Many of my wise cracks, back in the day, were bordering on or were off color. Back then I usually got away with it. That was then--this is now! Sometimes some of these pearls of wisdom slip out of my mouth before my brain can take them back. Karen Leonhard points out that, given all these celebrities getting the "ax" for past indiscretions, I better clean up my act. That brings up my point: Things are different now, oh boy are they ever!

Somebody who is keeping track says there are now over 90-people who are suffering the consequences of accusations of sexual misconduct. You could say this is political correctness on Viagra. It seems that the Left has jumped on this issue and by doing so seems to be "eating their young", politically speaking. As this is happening, conservatives just seem to be scratching their heads. All I can figure out is that the Democrats can see President Trump is firmly in the Oval Office--the probe into alleged collusion with Russia isn't going anywhere--the economy is booming and Roy Moore lost the Alabama Senate race--they need something to rage over and this public morality play seems to suit them. I don't condone some of the despicable behavior taking place against women over the years, but we are becoming desensitized by all of this and in addition to not believing anything we see on TV in print and hear on the radio we are getting tired of the whole scenario. Years ago I swore I would never take up golf. Maybe it's time I did.

AMERICANISM

| Kathy Merritt and Sandy Lockwood participated in the Wreaths Across America ceremony held at the King City Cemetery on December 16th. The local VFW Auxiliary sold Christmas wreaths to honor our Veterans and at precisely 12 noon EST on December 16th, ceremonies were held at Arlington National Cemetery and performed over the world by placing Christmas wreaths on the graves of our Veterans. Participants from Fort Hunter Liggett and Mayor Mike LeBarre spoke at the ceremony. Following the ceremony volunteers placed the wreaths on Veteran's graves and spoke their name to thank them for their sacrifice for our freedom.

TEXAS RELIEF DONATIONS

The club received a Thank-You note from the Texas Federation of Republican Women. We sent $800 in gift cards to help our Texas sisters and their families rebuild.

Please accept the heartfelt thanks of the weary, yet resilient, citizens of the Texas Gulf Coast. Hurricane Harvey left destruction in its wake but thanks to the help of Americans like you we will be better and stronger than ever. Eventually.

Your generous donation will help families who have lost everything with the basic necessities but, most importantly, you have brought hope and a sense of support to those who have little else.

The Texas Federation of Republican Women cannot say thank you enough for stepping up when we needed you most.

I will always remember your generosity; you are truly the embodiment of the American spirit. God bless you.

With gratitude,

Theresa N. Kosmos
