QUOTE OF THE MONTH

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Kathy, Karen and No. Div. Pres, Dottie Lindon

CFRW Pres. Nam-Yong Horn

I was pleased to represent our club at the CFRW Fall Conference in Bakersfield. I attended workshops on leadership and membership and there were many interesting and motivating speakers including John Sullivan, writer, director and producer whose latest film is Gosnell. We participated in a Yes on Prop 6 rally in front of the Convention Center and gained quite a bit of attention for our cause.

Candidate for Governor, John Cox, spoke as well as many other candidates including Mark Meuser. Ben Bergquam, co-founder of the Fight Sanctuary State Initiative and host of Frontline America also spoke. It is truly inspiring to be among so many enthusiastic conservative Republican Women.

Karen Leonhard, President

John Cox,

AMERICANISM Did you know?

Veterans Day is held in honor of all those who served in the United States Armed Forces. This is different from Memorial Day, which honors those who died while serving.

Kathy Forgnone, Americanism Chair

COOKIE WALK

We need your cookies and/or favorite baked goods. This fundraiser is fast approaching. November 17th to be exact. Please bring your goodies to the cafeteria building at the fairgrounds or call Dorothy to have them picked up. Call Dorothy or Jeane at 382-4230 for more information or to volunteer.

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

We had a huge attendance at our October meeting where Darlene Acosta and Mayor Mike Lebarre, candidates for re-election to City Council in King City spoke. They talked about the importance of youth in our community and thanked the club for our support of the after school Pro-Youth program.

Lance Walker, Greenfield City Councilman, told us of his candidacy for Mayor and his vision of the Yanks Museum and airstrip being completed as well as seeing that a Court House is built in Greenfield. Legislative Chair, Kenda Chavez, gave a rundown of all of the Propositions on the November ballot. A special thanks to all of the members who took Yes on Prop

6 door hangers, bumper stickers and information to distribute. A reminder that members should keep track of their volunteer hours when working on campaigns. Kaeda Barrios was the lucky winner of the opportunity drawing.

Associate member Will Clark supporting the Yes on 6 effort.

View From The Edge Of The Crowd by Lee Schell

Democrats declared war on Republicans with the Kavanaugh atrocity. What they did to that man and his family was unspeakable and has disgusted even some people in their own party. Let's hope that works to Republican advantage in the upcoming mid-term elections. Current political polls show the GOP could lose control of the House of Representatives. These same polls had Hillary winning in 2016 so stay tuned. Election night in November may have it's own surprises.

Justice Brett Kavanaugh was one of the most qualified Supreme Court candidates to ever go before the US Senate for confirmation so why did the Democrats get so vicious during the confirmation hearings? Sure, it was another conservative on the court, but there is another reason lurking in the background. They went after Kavanaugh because he was a boy scout! The Democrats want to send a message to anyone else who might be nominated to the high court by President Trump or any other future Republican president. These unscrupulous political hacks want everybody to know that if they can ruin or permanently damage Justice Kavanaugh and his family they can inflict as much or more mayhem on another equally or lesser-qualified candidate. Their smear machine will reach back to a nominee's middle school years, if need be, and dredge up the worst of inane stuff with which to hammer any candidate who agrees to be subjected to the confirmation trial-by-fire. If they can accuse Justice Brett Kavanaugh of gang rape they can accuse anyone of anything...and that's their message.

The Democrats have another trick up their sleeves. If the president of the United States were elected by popular vote instead of the constitutionally mandated Electoral College Al Gore would have been sworn in in the year 2000 and Hillary Clinton would be two years into being our worst nightmare. We are a republic not a true democracy. The founding fathers saw the danger of the most populous states shouting down the smaller ones. The Electoral College makes sure that smaller states have equal say in electing the chief executive of the country. But now, Democrats think they have found a loophole in the constitution's Article-II. They think that if they get enough states and voting territories to commit all of their Electoral College votes to the winner of the popular vote they can prevail in upcoming elections. That is a simplification of a complicated process but the fact that it is even being considered to do an end run around Article-II of the US Constitution is a real concern. It just points out that some people will stop at nothing to slake their thirst for power.

VOTER REGISTRATION

Thanks to Claudia Wollesen, Kathy Rice, Mike Oliviera and Karen Leonhard for registering voters at Safeway last weekend. This is another event that should be recorded in your record of volunteer hours spent for the club's campaign activities.

Arlene Azcona, Voter Registration Chair

LEGISLATIVE

California state lawmakers recently passed a bill forcing restaurants to offer specific beverages to children. Governor Jerry Brown signed the legislation, which passed easily in both the Senate and Assembly, at the end of September.

Though SB 1192 allows customers to order other drinks upon request, the Golden State is now mandating that only unflavored milk and water be listed as “default beverages” on menus (a provision also allows for “non-dairy fluid milk substitutes” containing under 130 calories).

Despite attempts by California lawmakers to alter human behavior—broadly reducing individual liberty in the process—they failed to achieve their goal. Three years of a prohibitive policy failed to make a meaningful dent in the stated problem, yet the legislature continues to apply the same controlling principles, burdening businesses and restricting individual choice.

"Have a McWater. It's all we can serve without being sued."

While rampant consumption of unhealthy food may be a public health issue, California would do well to rely more heavily on approaches beyond bans. For example, ample scientific research shows educational campaigns—which empower people with knowledge rather than making choices for them—reduced youth smoking rates

Whether it's dictating who must serve on the boards of private companies or attempting to regulate speech, California lawmakers continue to condescend to citizens, assuming they know better.

Meanwhile, the results of their intrusive policies continue to demonstrate their own incompetence.

Kenda Chavez, Legislative Chair
