

Tri Valley Republican Women Federated cordially invite all, Republican Women and Men to our Monthly Dinner on June 14, 2018 to hear our Guest Speaker, James S. Burling, Vice President for Litigation with the Pacific Legal Foundation. Before becoming an attorney, James had been a productive member of society, working as an exploration geologist in the late 1970's throughout the southwestern United States. However, after several years of dealing with irrational government bureaucrats and environmental policies untethered from reality, James decided that what the world needs are more lawyers — if they are willing to fight for rationality in regulatory regimes, property rights, and liberty. James attended the University of Arizona, College of Law, in Tucson, where he served as an Editor for the Law Review and received a J.D. degree in 1983. He had previously received a Master's Degree in Geological Sciences from Brown University and an Undergraduate Degree from Hamilton College in New York. James has worked with Pacific Legal Foundation since 1983, litigating cases from Alaska to Florida. He is a member of the Federalist Society's Environmental Law and Property Rights Practice Group's Executive Committee, a member of the American College of Real Estate Lawyers, and an honorary member of Owners' Counsel of America, an organization comprised of eminent domain attorneys, who represent property owners. The Owners' Counsel awarded James its Crystal Eagle Award in 2013. In 2001, James successfully argued a major property rights case, Palazzolo v. Rhode Island, before the United States Supreme Court, a case which affirmed that rights in regulated property do not disappear when land is bought and sold. He has written extensively on all aspects of property rights and environmental law and frequently speaks on these subjects throughout the nation. When James is not suing the government, he enjoys skiing faster than he should, bicycling, hiking, swimming, and spending quality time with his wife, family, and new grandchild. THIS IS A NOT-TO-MISS EVENT!
