FEATURING GUEST SPEAKER:
GLORIA HOM

Educator, Economist & Civic Leader

As a 4th generation Californian, an economist, professor, lecturer, businesswoman, community leader and administrator, Gloria brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to our meetings. She has received several distinguished awards, including the "Avenidas Lifetime of Achievement Award", recognizing her decades of work in education and her service to the Palo Alto community.

Gloria has a lifetime record of devoted service with many organizations, including the California State University Board of Trustees, California Board of Education, U.S. Department of Education the White House Conference on Libraries and Information Service, the Sallie Mae Board and the California and Santa Clara County Republican Party. She has held membership on the Selective Service Board of Governors, and was appointed by Governor Schwarzenegger to the State Teachers' Retirement System, Board of Directors.

Gloria is a member President of the Palo Alto RWF, and is well-known and highly regarded among Republican Women Federated. It will be such a pleasure to welcome back our friend Gloria - you don't want to miss her presentation and probably have friends who would like to hear her take on our CA Ballot Propositions!
