

Marin Republican Women Federated

Virtual Meeting Live On-Line, Wed. Jan. 27th

From your home and on your computer and telephone

11:30 am – 12:30 pm

Speaker: Andrea Widburg - Deputy Editor, Writer/Contributor to *American Thinker

Topic: What Do We Need To Do Now?

Andrea Widburg is a Bay Area native who now lives just outside of Charleston, South Carolina. After thirty years as a lawyer, she finally lucked into her dream job in 2020 and now works full time as an editor and writer for American Thinker, an online conservative publication.

Here is how Thomas Lifson, Editor and Publisher of American Thinker, highlighted Andrea when he brought her in to the American Thinker team in January 2020. “You may not be familiar with her name, but if you are a fan of the conservative blogosphere, you probably have seen her blog Bookworm Room. Andrea is bringing the same insight and eloquence to AT (American Thinker), and we are thrilled to have her on the team.”

Andrea posts one or more articles a day on American Thinker. And you will see those articles linked on RealClearPolitics, Lucianne, and other top sites every day by her readers. She has her thumb on the pulse of the nation.

We in Marin were/are familiar with her because she was our neighbor. Those of you who were members and enjoyed the speakers presented monthly at ‘Second Wednesdays’ will recognize her as a leader in that conservative group.

Join us on-line to get the absolute latest news and Andrea’s take on the news on January 27, 2020. Get your questions answered.
